

SYDDANSK UNIVERSITET

The Institute of Philosophy, Education and the Study of Religions (IFPR) at the University of Southern Denmark (SDU) presents in cooperation with Aalborg University in Esbjerg (AAUE) and the Academy of Music and Music Communication, Esbjerg (VMK)

Music and Sound in Public Space

An International Conference organized by NTSMB, the Danish Network for Cross-Disciplinary Studies of Music and Meaning (Netværk for Tværvideenskabelige Studier af Musik og Betydning), University of Southern Denmark (SDU), Esbjerg, November 16-17, 2007.

Keynote addresses: Wayne O. McCready (Professor, Department of Religious Studies and Director, Calgary Institute for the Humanities, University of Calgary) and Nicoletta Isar (Associate Professor of Art History at the University of Copenhagen).

Lectures: Brandon LaBelle (Sound, new media and public artist, Copenhagen), Angela Dorrer (Sound, new media and public artist, Montreal and München), Morten Jæger (MA in Musicology and Dramaturgy from Aarhus Universitet, project leader at Sound Forum Øresund), Johann Haslauer (Curator of Neue Gallerie Landshut of Contemporary Art), Anders-Petter Andersson (Ph.D Student, Senior Lecturer in Musicology, Head of BSc Programme in Interactive Sound Design with a Major in Computer Science, Kristianstad University), Jan Samuelsen (Student of Performance Design at Roskilde University (RUC), Project coordinator of the international art project "Verdens ender", Ada Ortega Camara (Visual Artist, MA in Art, Ph.D. Scholar, Universidad Politecnica de Valencia, Spain) and Patricia Davelois (Film Director, Chairman of FilmPlatform).

The conference is supported by the Danish Research Council for Humanities (DRCH).

All lectures will be given at the auditorium at SDU Esbjerg, Niels Bohrs Vej 9, 6700 Esbjerg.

Lectures are free and open to the public, but full participation in the conference including lunch, coffee, conference dinner (except beverages) and a limited period of access to the NTSMB group on Facebook costs 390 DKK. Online registration is fast and easy. Just click the relevant link at one of our websites: www.ntsmb.dk or www.myspace.com/ntsmb. Deadline for registration is November 5, 2007.

The websites also offer recommendations on inexpensive lodging in Esbjerg plus full program with abstracts.

For further information, please contact Chairman of the Program Committee Jan Hatt-Olsen, jh@urbanartscape.org, NTSMB Director Cynthia M. Grund, cmgrund@ifpr.sdu.dk or NTSMB Vice-Director Søren R. Frimodt-Møller, soren@frimodt-moller.dk